This definition determines how the brand wants to appear to its target audience and how it wants to influence them. This SEO description is designed to help people who are interested in branding understand what this concept is and why it is important for businesses. Creating a strong identity for your brand increases brand awareness and helps you stand out from your competitors. This SEO description highlights the importance of branding for your brand to compete successfully. Brand image is the perception that a brand creates in the mind of the consumer. With a good brand image, brand loyalty and preferability increases. A brand's image is of great importance in gaining competitive advantage and reaching the target audience effectively.

Course objectives		Purpose of the subject: The main purpose of teaching the subject is to develop the basic creative skills of students. The process of creating a brand image consists of several steps: First of all, a comprehensive research should be done about the brand's target audience and market. It should be determined which values are important about the brand and what kind of image should be created. Elements such as the brand's logo, colors, slogan and design form the corporate identity of the brand. It is important that these elements reflect brand values and are compatible with the target audience. Determining brand values is a fundamental step in creating the brand's identity and image. Brand values include the benefits the brand offers and the messages it wants to give to the consumer.
