Rules (Education policy and conduct)	Attendance Student participation in all classes is important. A student who is more than 10 minutes late will be written as absent. However, the student is allowed to attend classes. Students must provide information about absences from classes for certain reasons (illness, marital status, etc.) to the dean of the faculty. Students who miss more than 25% of lessons are not allowed to take the exam.
	Task Of the 40 points awarded for assignments, 20 points are counted towards 2 assignments (each assignment counts as 10 points) and the remaining 20 points are for 1 assignment towards graduation after the midterm exam.
	The midterm and final exam are both practical in nature. So, students should complete the still life drawing with a black pencil and using water color as the color within the 3 hours allotted for the exam. As a result, all work is coded and evaluated by the course instructor. All issues related to the student's participation in the exam or admission to the exam are resolved by the faculty management.
	Course Completion Procedure According to the university rules, the overall course completion rate is 60% or above. Students who are failed may take the course again the following semester or the following year.
	Violation of examination rules During midterm and final exams, students are prohibited from disrupting the course of the exam and making displacements. A student who does not follow this rule will have his or her exam work canceled and will be expelled from the exam with a grade of 0 (zero).
	Rules of conduct of the student Disruption of the educational process or unethical actions, as well as unauthorized discussions and the use of mobile phones by students are not allowed.
