Policy	Attendance: Students exceeding the 25% absence limit will not be allowed to participate at final exam. The students are required to attend all classes as part of their studies and those having legitimate reasons for absence (illness, family bereavement etc) are required to inform the instructor.
	Activity shall mean active participation i.e. asking and answering the question, contribute with insights and feedback, and demonstrate willingness and dedication to be part of an overall class discussion.
	Group presentation (15%): This coursework assessment, like many in Marketing is team based. This is because collaborative and deliberative skills are crucial for a successful career and this team-working is excellent practice, but also because of the proven powerful impact discussion, deliberation and debate has on your learning and the development of your critical thinking.
	You will get to choose your team-mates but remember - it is your responsibility to make the team work!
	You will be provided with an agency brief in the first lecture and as part of your assignment you will be required to respond to this brief, generating creative ideas and solutions that effectively respond to the brief.
	In order to communicate your ideas and solutions, you will be required to produce a deck of PowerPoint slides using the Notes section to clearly convey your ideas to the client. Presentations should be a maximum of 20 minutes.
	Your PowerPoint slides should be customized to include your agency name/ logo and should also include a brief team bio. Alongside this your presentation should include an executive summary, context analysis (brand research and competitor analysis, target audience), communications objectives, marketing communications strategy, creative approach including creative mock-ups/ executions, media plan, scheduling and implementation, budgeting and effectiveness evaluation. Creativity and the creative process will be discussed in detail within the lectures to help you with the process of generating creative responses to the brief.
	The rationale behind this assignment is to provide you with the opportunity to gain experience of responding to a brief and generating and communicating creative solutions and ideas.
	Case analysis will be based on an essay. The cases will be provided during the lesson and will focus on the taught material
	Case Analysis Report (5%) This is an individual work. Students are expected to complete an analysis of minimum 1 case during the class. Case material will be presented during the class. Students must write a report consisting of a minimum of 100 and a maximum of 500 words.
