Policy	Assessment
	Papers will be assessed based on fulfillment, adherence to the stated purpose, proper referencing, and coherence.
	Projects are built around students’ research and compilation skills culminating in an overview presentation of selected topics.
	Testing will be carried out in writing, either during scheduled quizzes or separately, and may take the form of multiple-choice or open-ended questions; student may also be asked to render the contents of the reading piece from memory, without a prior warning. Failure to comply will be counted against the student. No make-up work will be accepted.
	The format of Midterm and Final Examination tests will be discussed prior to each exam.
	Attendance: If a student must miss a class, it is the student’s responsibility to check reading assignments and schedule changes before the next class meeting. Attendance and participation will affect students’ performance in the exams.
	All written projects, if any, must be submitted as scheduled.
	No cell phones are allowed for reference or picture taking.
	A Note on Academic Dishonesty: Plagiarism and cheating are to be avoided as they are considered unacceptable academic practices. Plagiarized work will not be graded.
