Policy/Assessment	Assessment Class participation and activity. This course cannot be successful without your regular participation. Class participation is based on participation in daily activities, dialogues, role-plays, discussions and exercises. Besides, you will be expected to contribute to discussions in each class, demonstrating an enquiring approach to the topics under discussion. You are also expected and highly encouraged to ask questions, make comments, or disagree with what your fellow students or instructor is saying. Following these rules, you can 10 points (maximal). Presentation: Each student is assigned independent project work which they have to present in the class. The presentation should cover the knowledge acquired during the course Assignment and quizzes Assignments and quizzes play an important part in your semester grade. You are expected to do all assignments given by the instructor on time. Besides, you will write a written quiz during the semester. In case you succeed, you can get 5 points (maximal) for the quiz. All above mentioned make 35 points maximal. The rest 65 points you can get at midterm and final exams. (35 points for final, 30 point for midterm) Class policies Attendance (Lateness): Attendance is important. Absences can be detrimental to one's grade due to the number of class activities (presentations and class participation) and complexity of the subject. For every three unexcused absences one (1) point will be deducted from the grade point average. More than 10 unexcused absences is excessive. Free participation is discouraged. Missed exams or assignments: Advance notification should be given if the student is unable to attend a scheduled presentation or test. Full class participation and completion of assigned homework are necessary. Academic Dishonesty: Any plagiarism while studying will be severely penalized, including the possibility of receiving a non-pass for the course. Reference should be given to the sources used in one's work. However, any research paper consisting of references and citations only, without further analysis by the student, will not be acceptable either. Cheating during the tests will be penalized including the possibility of a zero mark on the test
