Assessment	Speaking examination gives instructors an opportunity to diagnose any major mistakes made by students in verbal language. The exam is held at the end of the course before final examination. Face-to-face interaction in oral language enables students to review the material covered during the course; build confidence to think and respond quickly; apply required vocabulary; encourage further oral proficiency; take part in the constructive exchange of ideas; communicate with two or more people on different topics. If successfully students will be able to get maximal 10 points. Writing portfolio. Students are expected to write essays on the topics given by the instructor during the term. Essays will be of different types including problem solution, argumentative, agree/disagree, two parts question essays, diagram and chart description so on. If successfully students will be able to get maximal 10 points. Class participation and activity. The students are expected to contribute to discussions in each class and to do all home assignments given by the instructor and exercises from their student's book and workbook on time. They can get maximal 10 points. All above mentioned makes 30 points maximal. The rest 70 points students can get at midterm and final exams. (35 points at each respectively)
Policy	BEHAVIOR: The issues we concentrate on in this class are often considered to be inappropriate and dubious, and you may have to deal with arguments with which you don't agree through lectures and debates. In such a case, you are invited to express your opinion on these issues however you are expected underpin your views with evidence. Furthermore, everybody, including me, needs to make an effort in order to make an attractive and productive academic climate in the class through sharing views and question respectfully and tactfully. There will be zero tolerance to any behavior causing aggression and discouraging ambience. Students need to be especially careful and treat each other with due attention while discussing contentious topics. Please notice that mobile phones are rigorously prohibited in the classroom. Disobedience to this rule will inevitably lead to poor grading and removal from the classroom. Also, working on other projects is also banned. ACADEMIC DISHONESTY: All kinds of cheating are strictly banned. Students bear the responsibility to know, understand, and adhere to policies on cheating and plagiarism. Zero for the assignments and failure at the course are parts of penalties for cheating and plagiarism. The case of cheating will definitely be reported to the Dean which may result in further consequences.
