

Sabina Mammadova

Lecturer in History, Baku State University

Baku, Azerbaijan

+994 50 444 27 52

sabina.inspire.edu@gmail.com

moderndiplomacy.eu/author/sbammadova

PROFILE

History educator and researcher working at the intersection of history education, artificial intelligence in education, digital and media literacy, and identity and collective memory in the Turkic world. Lecturer in History at Baku State University, with teaching experience in secondary and higher education since 2012, including in a Russian-medium section. Holds an MA in the organization and methodology of teaching and learning from ADA University. Recent work includes conference papers, proceedings contributions and analytical articles, and selection as a Lecturer at the Third Turkic World Summer Forum (Organization of Turkic States and Ibn Haldun University, 2026).

RESEARCH INTERESTS

Artificial intelligence in education · Digital leadership and educational governance · Digital and media literacy · Collective memory, identity and belonging in the Turkic world · Education, values and soft power · School emotional climate and human rights · History education

EDUCATION

|             |                                                                                                         |
|-------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 2022 – 2024 | MA, Organization and Methodology of Teaching and LearningADA University, Baku                |
| 2009 – 2013 | BA, History (specialization: History Teacher)Faculty of History, Baku State University, Baku |

ACADEMIC AND TEACHING APPOINTMENTS

|                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
|----------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 2024 – present | Lecturer in HistoryBaku State University                                                                                                                                                              |
| 2020 – 2025    | History TeacherAraz Ecology Lyceum No. 291, Baku                                                                                                                                                      |
| 2016 – 2021    | History Teacher, Russian SectionDunya School, Khazar University, Baku <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Organized school events.</li><li>Maintained regular communication with parents.</li></ul> |
| 2012 – 2013    | History TeacherIntellekt Courses, Baku                                                                                                                                                                |

PUBLICATIONS

Conference proceedings

|      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
|------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 2025 | Mammadova, S. “Türk dünyasında psikolojik ve kültürel yaklaşma, ortak değerlerin inşasında eğitimin, medyanın ve akademik hafızanın stratejik rolü” [Psychological and cultural rapprochement in the Turkic world: The strategic role of education, media and academic memory in building shared values]. In Proceedings of the V Manas Forum – Bölgesel ve Küresel Gelişmeler Bağlamında Türk Dünyası [The Turkic World in the Context of Regional and Global Developments], Northern Cyprus Campus of the Social Sciences University of Ankara and Kyrgyz-Turkish Manas University, Lefkoşa. Accepted for publication. |
|------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

- n.d. Mammadova, S. “Türk Dünyasında Yepyeni Zəka Aracılı Medya Okuryazarlığının İmzası” [The signature of “brand-new intelligence”-mediated media literacy in the Turkic world]. In Proceedings of the International Turkic World Strategic Studies Congress: “Turkic Friendship”, Turkic World Yörük Turkmen Union and Marmara University.

Analytical and policy articles

- n.d. Mammadova, S. “Emotional climate in schools and its impact on human rights: A cross-country study.” Modern Diplomacy.
- n.d. Mammadova, S. “Regional Conflicts and Crisis Management: The Karabakh Conflict and Post-Conflict Resolution from Diplomatic and Legal Perspectives.” Independent Think Tank Worldwide.
- n.d. Mammadova, S. “Kolektif Hafıza, Medya ve Türk Dünyasında Aidiyet” [Collective memory, media and belonging in the Turkic world]. DASAM Akademi. An analysis of collective memory, media literacy and academic identity in the Turkic world.
- n.d. Mammadova, S. “Digital Literacy is Now a Matter of Civic Defense and the Turkic World Can’t Ignore It.” International politics and technology platform. Examines the strategic importance of digital literacy, artificial intelligence, information security and media literacy in the Turkic world.

Teaching materials

- 2020 History of Azerbaijan: Test Collection for the Russian Section. Teaching resource approved by the Ministry of Education of the Republic of Azerbaijan.

CONFERENCE PRESENTATIONS AND INVITED LECTURES

- Jul 2026 Lecturer (selected), Third Turkic World Summer Forum: The Future of the Turkic World, Organization of Turkic States and Ibn Haldun University, Istanbul, 6–15 July 2026. Research presentation and project: “Artificial Intelligence, Value Formation, and Digital Identity in the 21st Century: A Comparative Study of University Students in Azerbaijan and Turkey.”
- May 2026 Speaker, 3rd International Turkic World Young Academics Congress, Baku, 10–13 May 2026. Paper: “Digital Leadership in AI-Driven Education: A Systematic Literature Review of Governance Trends and Challenges in the Turkic World.” Awarded a certificate for active contribution to the academic presentations and discussions.
- Feb 2026 Speaker, International online seminar “AI in Energy and Economics,” jointly organized by Fatih Sultan Mehmet Vakıf University, Ibn Haldun University, Tashkent State University of Economics and Ahmet Yesevi University, 28 February 2026. Awarded a certificate for contribution to the scholarly discussions.
- n.d. Speaker, “Transformation and Integration in the Turkic World: Economy, Politics, and Technology,” Ankara Hacı Bayram Veli University. Paper: “Artificial Intelligence in Education as a Soft Power Instrument in the Turkic World.”

HONORS AND AWARDS

- 2018 – 2020 Letter of Appreciation, Dunya School, for contribution to the development of the school.
- 2012 Diploma of Distinction and Second Place, “Atatürk and Heydar Aliyev” project, Ministry of Education.
- 2012 Winner, Best Group Leader, “State and Religion” event (participation as group leader).
- 2010 – 2013 Diploma of Distinction for participation in projects of the Islamic Cooperation Conference.
- n.d. Winner, Creative Teacher Competition “Creative Teacher: Intradisciplinary and Interdisciplinary Integration” (Diploma), Baku City Education Department.

|      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| n.d. | Certificate of Honor , Ecology Lyceum No. 291 named after Azad Humbatov, for outstanding teaching performance, consistent work discipline and contribution to improving the lyceum's learning outcomes. |
| n.d. | Letter of Appreciation , on the occasion of the centenary of National Leader Heydar Aliyev, for particular distinction in the lyceum's activities and exemplary work discipline.                        |

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT AND TRAINING

|                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|---------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Jan – Mar 2025      | Teacher Training Program: “Teaching English for Critical Intercultural Awareness” , U.S. Embassy in Baku, organized by World Learning, 14 January – 10 March 2025.                                                                                                                                                                          |
| Oct 2024 – Feb 2025 | Intensive Practicum in Psychology (3 months; IABPC-accredited). Theoretical and practical training in CBT, psychoanalysis, schema therapy and Gestalt therapy; participation in supervision during 12 hours of live therapy sessions.                                                                                                       |
| Jul – Aug 2024      | International Turkic World Summer School (72 hours), Heydar Aliyev Center for Eurasian Studies and Ibn Haldun University. Seminars and discussions on the Turkic world, international relations, geopolitics and academic cooperation.                                                                                                      |
| 2023                | Workshop: “Teacher Leadership: Roles and Responsibilities” , ADA University 6th International Conference “Rethinking the Enlightenment.”                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Mar 2022            | Eğitimde Yeni Trendler – İstanbul Eğitim Forumu 2022 [New Trends in Education – Istanbul Education Forum], initiated by the Azerbaijan Educators' Association with Istanbul Doğuş University, Istanbul Topkapı University and Şehit Fikret Matin Öztürk Secondary School.                                                                   |
| 2019                | STEAM Project , Dunya School and Türkiye University (certificate of participation).                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| 2017                | World Professional Development Program (DPD) : training on innovations in education.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| 2017                | The 1st Annual International XXI Century Teacher's Conference (participant).                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| n.d.                | “Meeting the Needs of Students with Disabilities in Higher Education” , Khazar University (certificate).                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| n.d.                | Eğitimde Yeni Trendler İzmir Forumu [New Trends in Education İzmir Forum], Ege University: training on “21. Yüzyıl Becerileri ve Öğretim Programlarına Yansımaları” [21st-century skills and their reflection in curricula] and “Öğrenme ve Öğretme Süreçlerinde Motivasyon” [Motivation in learning and teaching processes] (certificate). |

OTHER PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

|             |                                                                                                                                                          |
|-------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 2013 – 2015 | NAB Holding – Baku Electronics , BakuRoles held: Public Relations and Sales Specialist; Human Resources Specialist; Administrative Assistant. |
|-------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

LANGUAGES AND SKILLS

|              |                                                                                                                                                                        |
|--------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Languages    | Azerbaijani, Russian, Turkish (full proficiency); English (B1, Intermediate)                                                                                           |
| Digital      | Applied use of artificial intelligence (AI) tools; data analysis and interpretation; digital communication; digital marketing; MS Word, Excel, PowerPoint, Outlook; 1C |
| Professional | Design thinking; media literacy and critical evaluation of information                                                                                                 |