I have published one monograph in Azerbaijan titled The Republic of Azerbaijan within the System of International Sports and Tourism Relations (1991–2005), one teaching aid titled Historiography of European and American History (from the Mid-17th Century to the 21st Century), and ten course syllabi for bachelor's and master's degree programs. Nearly 50 of my articles have appeared in academic journals across Azerbaijan, Turkey, Russia, Georgia, Kazakhstan, and Uzbekistan. I have presented papers at approximately 20 international symposia and conferences. Currently, I am working on the development of textbooks covering world political history and American history.

I teach the following subjects: History of Azerbaijan at BSU (Department of History of Azerbaijan for Humanities, 2012–2017) and at ASOIU (Department of Humanities, 2022–2024); Modern History of Europe and America at BSU (Department of Modern History of European and American Countries, 2017–2018); and—since 2015—American History, Modern History, World Political History, Ottoman History, and the History of the Republic of Turkey at SSU.
